Read the text below about David and Gabriela Smith.

David Smith: "Hi! My name's David Smith. I work for a big bank in Canary Wharf, London. I'm married, but I haven't got any children. My wife's name is Gabriela. She's from Spain, but she speaks very good English. She works as a receptionist for big company in London.

We don't live in London. Our house is in Cambridge. We get up at 5am and leave home at 6am to travel to work. We get home at 8pm. It's very difficult. Gabriela doesn't like cooking, so we always eat out. We often go to our favourite Italian restaurant in Cambridge. It's called Pizza Express. We both love Italian food."

Gabriela Smith: "I'm Gabriela, David's wife. I work in London, but I hate travelling to London everyday! I like living in the country, but I really want to live in London. I don't like getting up early to go to work. We want a large flat with two bedrooms because David's brother sometimes visits us.

At the weekend, David and I listen to music and we go running by the river. In Cambridge, there's a great river, but we don't go swimming there. Cambridge has also got many interesting streets and shops and a beautiful square. There are many cafés. They're nice places to have coffee with friends.
