

I. Reading Section (20 marks)

Read about Coconut Island and do the activities.

Coconut Island is a beautiful, tropical island with, of course, coconut palms, golden beaches and clear blue sea. I'm sorry, I made a mistake there. Coconut Island was a beautiful island. There are still coconut palms, golden beaches and clear blue sea but not like before. So, what happened?

Well, the beach is full of people, sunbeds and umbrellas. The sea is full of speedboats, noisy jetskis and surfers. There are fewer palm trees because there are more and more buildings. Hotels, holiday resorts, guest houses, restaurants, swimming pools... you name it, Coconut Island has it. Paradise is no longer here, but the Paradise Hotel is.

I have a friend who was here five years ago. Her photo album is full of wonderful pictures of empty beaches. She also has pictures of small, wooden bungalows on the beach. No need to book, she said, just turn up and you have the place to yourself - very basic, very cheap, very quiet and very peaceful.

Not anymore! The beach is never empty - it's packed all day! There is music blaring from the cafés and children are shouting. Most of the hotels are full of holidaymakers who booked their trip months ago, and it's expensive.

But perhaps this is progress? The local people seem happy: there are many people selling things on the beach, there are lots more jobs and better roads. There is also a new medical clinic. The local kids now speak English 'Mister, mister, you want t-shirt?' and there are many new businesses opening all the time.

Then I see an old woman trying to cross the road from her house to the shops. It's no longer a small, quiet road but a large and very busy one. She looks nervous and waits for someone to walk with her. The children no longer ride bicycles, but race around the island on motorbikes.

Is this progress?

Vocabulary

shout - gritar

no longer - ya no

112-Year-Old Post Card to Fly Back to Australia

EDINBURGH Saturday February 24 (Reuters) - A postcard that took 112 years to get from Brisbane to Scotland will be sent back to Australia to be reunited with the granddaughter of the man who wrote it, the Post Office said this week.

The card was sent to a "Miss Wardrop" in Aberdeen from "Colin" on Jan. 4, 1889, but arrived in the Scottish city only this week.

"We have absolutely no idea where it's been," said Aberdeen postmaster Pete Smith.

Puzzled postmen found that 32 Carden Place, Aberdeen had since become a dental surgery and Miss Wardrop had moved out long ago.

The identity of the card's sender remained a mystery until Alison Britts, a 74-year-old from New South Wales, named him as her grandfather Colin Wardrop who had sent a New Year postcard home to his family more than a century ago.

The postcard will begin its return trip Monday and should arrive in Australia within four days.
